

Manual-S & D Training

A comprehensive training class on how to select equipment as per Manual S and Ductwork Design as per Manual D.

In This class students will be instructed how to select equipment & size duct system: The following areas will be covered: Residential Air Distribution, Basic principles – Residential equipment selection and duct sizing calculations, Air side device examples and samples of job duct sizing. We will also discuss load calculation results, selecting the proper equipment for your project, understanding static pressure loss, Equivalent length fittings, recommended velocities and common sense duct design.

Prerequisites: Those responsible for designing A/C systems for homes and duct installers, Laptop computers with mouse

Length 4 Hours

Class times are outlined below... The classes will be taught by Bob Volin and classes will fill on a first come, first served basis so RSVP ASAP and we will enjoy class together.

4 Hour General CE's available for license holders. (Course # 0010174)

Cost $100.00

Branch Locations	Address	Date	Time
-------------------------	----------------	-------------	-------------

See Web Site for details or call Air Design for dates and times

TO SIGN UP PLEASE VISIT OUR WEB SITE @ www.airdesignconcepts.com

Please bring check

For questions call 954-321-0888, Bob Volin

All RSVPs and cancellations must be made 2 days in advance